International

Date: 15-07-2022, number 77

Friends of the Jesus Revelation through the writing servant and writing prophet Jakob Lorber feel connected to all people of the world as creatures and children of one and the same Father. This Heavenly Father embodied Himself in Jesus Christ about 2,000 years ago and did not manifest Himself as Savior and Teacher until age 30, for three years. The spirit friends of the Divine Revelation recognize in this eternal declaration a new and great Word of God and aim to achieve a joyful mutual exchange.

Rudy Vercauteren from Belgium:

Rudy Vercauteren points us to the end of the end times. He writes the following: For several years now, we have been exchanging ideas in our small circle of Lorber friends about the world's situations and current events, tested against what we have read in Jakob Lorber's New Revelation and possibly other similar sources of information.

Thus, also at the beginning of the corona outbreak, the general and intense feeling emerged in our group that the end of the end times was and still is very much alive. One of our friends (A.N.) drew our attention to chapters 86 and 87 in "The Household of God, Volume 3".

In it, there is an open conversation between Enoch and Satan in which Enoch predicted that Satan would be banished in about 6 times the age of Adam. In this text, the editor has mentioned in italics between brackets the possible age of Adam at that time, namely nine hundred and thirty years. This number (930), however, is not correct, since Adam was still alive then and only died a few years later at the known age of 930 years.

The banishment of Satan must logically precede the return of The Lord because He does not want to return to an unclean world. In the book The Great Gospel of John, volume 6, chapter 174, paragraph 7, we read that Jesus promised His disciples His Second Coming "in 1,000 and almost another 1,000 years". Jesus must have been about 31 or 32 years then.

On the other hand, Rudy V. points us to the following link:

(http://www.apologetique.org/nl/artikelen/mens/geschiedenis/bib_geschiedenis/ACL_volkstelling_Quirinius.htm)

He goes on to write: 'The difference between the year of Satan's banishment and the year of the Lord's return must therefore be small.'

'After this banishment the Lord returns and establishes a millennial kingdom.' (see 'The Great Gospel of John', volume 8, chapter 48, paragraph 7). 'The beginning of the Jewish era probably has to do with the birth of Enoch').

'For this we refer to the many predictions of various seers during the last 100 years. As world events and situations occur and evolve, it seems that Alois Irlmaier, Edgar Cayce and other seers and writers of the Lord did see world history coming in advance.

The predicted inflation is happening now, the Russian invasion of Western Europe or World War III is imminent (this summer), a massive tsunami from the North Sea is flooding areas up to about 200 meters in height (in September), while tyranny and the antichrist are reigning supreme. But an intervention of the Lord Himself puts an end to this (in the autumn) as Jesus foretold (see 'The Great Gospel of John', part 5, chapter 108, paragraphs 2 and 3), by causing a great tumult with a large celestial body.

Rudy suspects that there will be a third world war: 'There will be one last war before the Lord returns to this Earth'. [Editorial comment: this is what Jesus said several times in the NR, that He will not want to come back until the earth with all its inhabitants is 'cleansed'!]

Jacob Lorber (Austria) (1800-1864: 'Behold, the polar bear (Russia) has no fear of feather pens (written agreements and treaties used to be written down with feather pens!). Much gold and silver and many horsemen are close to his heart. Woe betide him if he leaves his lair. I tell you, he will triumph by might and tyranny....'

The Last dying words of great personalities.

Lord, teach us to number our days, that we may gain a wise heart' (Psalm 90:12)

Emperor Augustus: 'Have I played my part well? Well, so it goes with that acclaim, for the comedy is now at an end'.

Napoleon: Count Montholon wrote of Napoleon: 'The emperor dies, abandoned by all, on this terrible rock. His agony is terrible!

Heinrich Heine: 'I have returned to God as a prodigal son after a long time with the Hegelians, herding the pigs...'

Nietzsche

Nietzsche died in a state of mental derangement.

Stalin

Stalin's daughter Svetlana Alliliyeva was called to the dying dictator's residence in Kuntsevo in March 1953 and said of Stalin's end: 'Father died in a terrible and hard way. God gives the righteous an easy death.'

Lenin

Lenin died in mental disarray. He clasped the legs of a table and chair and begged forgiveness for his sins.

A Lorber reader from Germany wrote:

The Lord has prevented Jakob Lorber's New Revelations from being printed in a Catholic country. Therefore the NR had to be written by hand. As a reward for their work, the copyists received private revelations from Jakob Lorber, which helped them with their emotional distress.

These private messages were published in six books. After these books were typed into the computer, they could be sorted by date. The publisher of analogy is now printing these 900 pages of revelations for the Lorber family in five books.

These are very topical again, because in those days revolutionaries such as Robert Blum were fighting, as they are now in Ukraine. But just like today, they were also supported by the free world then and fought against Russian soldiers, who triumphed in Jakob Lorber's time.

[Editorial comment: it is unclear here who triumphed: the Russians or the revolutionaries! According to the writings of Jakob Lorber, the bullied POLARBEAR will be victorious].

Maria from Italy wrote:

Dear Gerard,

I found the following text as a possible word of comfort for believers.

Kind regards,

M.

Causes of almost all evil

[6] But then no-one thinks that all this suffering, all sickness, all wars, all price increases, hunger and plague come from the fact that people do everything only for their bodies instead of for their souls and their spirit according to God's order!

[7] Yes, they preach the fear of God to dead souls, in whom (God) the preacher, soul dead himself, no longer believes. Because he only believes in what he gets for preaching and what honor and what reputation a well-studied position as preacher could bring. And so one blind leads the other and a dead man wants to make another dead man alive. The first preaches for his body, and the other obeys the teaching for the sake of his body. But what sort of advantage can there be for an extremely sick soul?

How Jesus Healed

[8] I am a savior; how, the dead and the blind people are asking, can this be possible? And I tell you that I do not heal the flesh of people, but instead wherever some soul is still left mixed with the flesh I make the soul free and awaken, as far as possible, the spirit buried in the soul. This immediately strengthens the soul which becomes free, and it is then an easy thing to set the correct order to the afflictions of the flesh in one moment.

[9] That is what one calls a miracle healing, while it is only the most ordinary and natural healing of the flesh in the world! What someone has, that he can give; what he does not have, that he cannot give!

[10] Whoever has a living soul according to the order of God and a free spirit in it, he can make his brother's soul free if it is not too embodied, and this helps the sick fleshly body. If the doctor of souls himself has a very sick soul, which is more dead than alive, how could he give someone else's soul what he is lacking himself?! Think about this! (GGJ 3, Kap. 12, V. 6 - 10)

Noach and the ark

[1] After this speech everyone opens wide their eyes and says to themselves: I am guilty! And at this the young Pharisee does not know what he should say to Me. Also Cyrenius and Julius now make rather thoughtful faces and even Ebahl and Jarah begin to think about their female beauty!

[2] And Cyrenius says after a moment of deep consideration: "Lord and Master, I have spent some days and nights with you here and there and have seen many wonders performed by you and heard you speak clearly, but nothing has made me think as much as this speech! For according to your remarks now we are not at all in a better position than Sodom and Gomorrah in the days of Abraham. And all our cares, actions and dealings are quite in optima forma for Satan. Friend, that is a very hard lecture! Unfortunately for no price one cannot conceal that You have given us the bare truth here; but how can we now take the standpoint from where we can willingly turn our backs on the world and then turn to the cultivation of the soul and the spirit for all time?"

[3] I say, "Friend, nothing easier than this! You remain what and who you are, and stand before whom you have been placed before; but not for your reputation, but instead for the various uses to other people! [03_013,04] For see, when the flood came in the days of Noah over the face of the Earth, which basically was inhabited by spoilt people, the flood killed everything in the world except for Noah and his family and the animals which Noah took in cages, all but the fish in the water, of course.

[5] But how did Noah and his family remain alive high above the death-bringing water of the great flood? You see, he was in a secure tub which the great flood had to carry obediently on its back and could never penetrate into inside of the boat, where it could have become dangerous to the life of Noah!

[6] This deadly flood of Noah's continues to spiritually cover the face of this Earth; and I say to you that this spiritual and continual flood of Noah's is no less dangerous for the lives of the people of this world than the former natural flood in the days of Noah.

[7] But how can one protect oneself from drowning in the spiritual flood? I say to you: What Noah did physically, that you should do spiritually, and then one is protected forever from drowning in the great and continual spiritual flood!

[8] In other words: Give the world what is of the world according to God's order – but give above all God what is God's!

[9] "Noah's Ark" is the correct humility and love of a person towards ones neighbor and towards God.

[10] Whoever is very humble and full of the pure, unselfish love towards God the Father and towards all people and always actively strives to serve other people as far as possible in the order of God, he floats away quite safely and protected over the flood of world sins that otherwise easily brings death; and at the end of this earthly path of life, when the flood subsides for him and runs away into its dark depths, there his ark will find welcome rest on the great Ararat of the most living Kingdom of God and will become an eternal house for those whom it carries". (GGJ 3, Kap. 13, V. 1 -10)

Aliens?

From the archives [editorial re-edited]

If the adversary Luzifer can manifest himself as an angel of light, then he is also capable of forming himself in any form, such as any number of UFO objects. In the writings of Lorber, not a word is said about UFOs and the material connections of the star dwellers with other galaxies. Much happens between heaven and earth that is not of God, but of His adversary, who has his origin in God. However, anything that does not originate from God should not be underestimated or relativised.

The flying objects appear in different shapes or forms with their flashing lights as seemingly motionless, hovering objects. The UFO formations as luminous discs with different colours, the circular objects with their curved tails. These objects can shape themselves in any form, but they can also dematerialise. Are they material phenomena or phenomena from the spiritual world?

It concerns the spheres of the thinner regions around the earth and, in our opinion, this is the world of ether. Ether is actually the 'all prae-existing antimatter'. But it is by no means purely spiritual, but has a more or less inner resemblance to the soul substance, so to speak. Highly sensitive people can often see semi-ethereal beings, such as goblins, gnomes or ethereal figures. Do UFOs also belong to this category? Were the Fatima apparitions of 1915-1917 in Portugal demonic portents?

In the cave of Kis, Faustus saw strange images on the limestone walls and asked Jesus who had created such images. Jesus answered: 'These are partly the works of My adversaries'. [GGE2-4.6]

As early as 1869, Catherine Adelma Vay described in 'Spirit Power and Dust' that the demons tried to arouse the attention and curiosity of the non-fallen spirits by means of electric light phenomena. According to Hans Malik in his book 'The Architect of His World': "The demons developed electric light phenomena and a play of colours in the atmosphere up to the borders of their underworld kingdoms. Amid the electric light effects, the demons were like the moving cause of such apparitions."

In the single chapter of Jude in the 6th text it says that even the angels, who did not retain their heavenly position in principle but left their own abode, God kept them there for the judgment of the great day, with eternal bonds in eternal darkness.

Also 2 Peter 2 and 4 describe similar words: "The angels who have sinned. This process is not yet complete and will also take centuries, according to Jacob Lorber.

In view of the end, there is increased danger, for the universe is full of poisonous spirits, according to Ephesians 6:12: 'For we do not fight against flesh and blood, but against the authorities, against the powers, against the rulers of the world, against the darkness of this age, and against spiritual evils in the air.' They are loyal and faithful servants of Satan who want to bring as many people as possible to destruction. '

Demons are not inhabitants of other stars. To the spiritual eye a spiritually powerful spark can really appear visually, in whatever form and with the power of the will. [Bishop Martin 191-200]

Lorber writes of the beings of light: 'He who wishes to exist in such light and fire must first be that light and fire himself!' The sun people, according to Max Seltmann, are addressed as "beings of light" in his book "Heimfound", pages 137, 143. See also Moses 2 chapters 20:5, 34:7, Moses 4 ch. 14:18, Moses 5 ch. 5:9.

GGJ10-195:7-11 speaks of so-called extraterrestrials. Such pictures are thus apparent realities.

View of the mountains of France. What do we see in the sky? Chemtrails?

The moon's footprints were said to be in the shape of human footprints and these resembled footprints you would see in a desert. The problem was, these footprints on the moon were not as big as human feet. [Internet edit]

Footprints of 13.5 cm. long were found there. According to science, this corresponds to a six-year-old child with a length of 95 cm. But in GGJ7-58 paragraphs 20-24 it is said that the moon dwellers are small grey, humanoid creatures, who because of their small size are also called goblins instead of men. See also Earth and Moon, chapter 2.

We are dealing here with semi-material beings, which can certainly be applied to a 'child's foot'.

According to NASA, unexpected footprints were discovered on the moon that amazed even researchers

But the Nasa didn't just find human footprints!

The moon people, who look like human beings on the side facing away from the Earth, are not beings like humans with a material body, but they have a semi-material body and can make themselves bigger or smaller at will. [Earth and moon] The inhabitants there breathe in a gaseous ether substance. We humans on earth are deceived by such mysterious phenomena. [See 2 Thess.2:9-12, 1 Tim.4:1-2, 2 Tim.4:3 and GGJ7-58:24]

Whoever takes a closer look at the works of Jakob Lorber can easily see that numerous heavenly bodies are enveloped in various covenants, i.e. the material over the semi-material up to the spiritual nature, and each envelopment or sphere also has its inhabitants. As a result, an almost unbelievable variety of levels of inhabitants of other stars in their various spheres arises for us humans.

Divine Omnipresence and Omniscience.

Love appears in the spiritual world as warmth and wisdom as light. Therefore, Divine love appears to the angels in heaven as one SUN. Yet love and wisdom are not two attributes, but they are as one attribute: and that is Divine love, which has everything in it.

In angels or spirits love [warmth] is received more than wisdom [light]. Therefore these are called heavenly angels or heavenly men. By angels or spirits who receive wisdom [light] more, however, these are called spiritual angels and spiritual people.

On the Earth, the Sun shines as one big fire star [and it is a million times bigger than the Earth] according to the writings of Jakob Lorber]. The fire element of the Sun and from it come heat and light at the same time. This is especially evident in spring and summer. The Lord is omnipresent [and that is His love] and He is omniscient [the wisdom and the true]. The universe is created in such a way that the Lord is in everything the first [the first = the Prince] and also the last and He dwells in the middle [of the centre] and thus is everywhere present.

Every human being is created on this Earth for a certain purpose. Most of them have in a way a preference for a certain utility [good or bad]. The saying: 'Love a cause!' Having a utility in this life is useful for the common good for man himself, for his neighbour, but above all for the Lord. Anyone who performs a good utility [work] and loves it expresses it in love for the general cause, that is, for the general benefit, and this is loved by the Lord and received by angels with joy in heaven.

But keeping a love for oneself, having a love for the world, that keeps man from his pleasures of wisdom and plunges him into the pleasures of worldly things, even of his body, which is connected with evils. Such, according to Swedenborg, are brought after death into infernal companions and forced to work by the power of hunger and by lack of food.

The whole heaven is filled with "usefulness" and each one gets as a reward a beautiful house with an abundance of household goods and cellars full of food in a paradisiacal atmosphere, but each according to his works. [Compare also GJE, part 1, theme Sichar or see further at Joh, 24:20,21]

The spaces in the primordial universe and the expansions for God are not great infinite spaces and expansions for the Lord Himself, for these infinite depths and heights He encompasses Himself, for His Divinity is everywhere at once.

An atheist who holds all Creation for something natural will be taught by angels after dying in the spiritual realm. An atheist who holds all of Creation to be natural will be taught by angels after death in the spiritual realm, and taught that the natural creation is, as it were, a copy of the spiritual world from which it [nature] owes its origin. If the atheist holds to his position and does not want to accept the spiritual or include it in his [spiritual] life, there is nothing left for him to do but to separate himself from the teaching angels and be placed in his own sphere of experience, that is, the hellish sphere, from which they [the atheists] cannot be taken out for all eternity [i.e., in unprecedented times! The reason is that they have no spiritual soul. During their earthly life they have tuned their souls more to the carnal life and not to the spiritual, which they lack. They do have a natural soul, as do all animals, and therefore, according to the writings of Jacob Lorber, are often seen in the spiritual world as animal forms that their souls have taken on. However, they still have the ability to think and speak, because they were born of humans.

With God there is no space and time, because wherever man goes, even if it is trillion light-years away, it is the same for the Lord and His angels. It is God Himself who made the firmament and where He is omnipresent. It is the Divine spiritual, the actual essence.

In heaven there is perpetual light and everlasting spring. The times are not fixed there, not even in one and the same state, and the feeling time is not measurable. What we have on Earth also exists in Heaven. Therefore, in heaven there are also spaces [spheres] and times, but different from those on Earth. The extensiveness of spaces and distances are according to the equality and inequality of the states of angelic love.

Deceased persons do not know what they see and feel in the spiritual realm, because it is not material, but substantial from a spiritual origin. Swedenborg says that everything that is in the spiritual world is more real than what exists in the natural world. In the spiritual world it seems as if all things were fixed, as if they had a certain state, as if they were measurable, yet they are not so in themselves.

They arise according to the states of the angels, and continue according to those states, and in such a way that the very states of the angels are one part of them. Therefore they also change as their spiritual states change. This, however, takes place primarily in the spirit world, where each person first arrives after his physical death, rather than in heaven or hell. Because this takes place in the spirit world [intermediate sphere of heaven and hell] where every person undergoes the transformation of his inner state and is prepared for heaven or hell.

In the spiritual world the fallen man sees everything in a brighter light. In the natural world they saw and felt with a much coarser sense. Hence it is that after death a person does not know at all that he has laid aside his material body, and that he has moved from the world of his body to the world of his spiritual sphere.

That God is omnipresent and omniscient is recognised in every religion. Therefore one prays to God that He hears, sees and has mercy.

A sign in the sky over Ukraine's Kiev?

A closer look at the period of the purification.

Jakob Lorber describes in the book: 'Gifts of Heaven', that the period of purification will last four weeks at the shortest; for there will then be hours in which more will happen than before in a century.

A longer period is set at four months. There will then be days, one of which will mean more than a full century before. Another is set at four quarters [that is a year!]. Then there will be more in a week than in a full century. Finally, a longest date is set at four years with a small amount of time added. Then will come moons [months] in which more will happen than in the past seven centuries!

Four years are yet to come! This period may have already started on September 11, 2019! Then in China [Wuhan] 'supposedly' a global viral infection broke out over the whole earth. It was not simply called COVID19, which first became known everywhere in March 2020. If we add another 4 years from March 2020, then according to Jakob Lorber's test, this 'imposition' by all world leaders would last till 2024.

If we know exactly the year of birth of Jesus, then it is also known, that His return, promised in the New Revelations, would take place within 2,000 years, and before that a great PURIFICATION PERIOD is to be expected. Then it can never take that long for Jesus' return to take place.

Moreover, world developments are moving very fast, as described in 'Heavenly Gifts', part 3 on 6 April 1849 in 'The great dawn of the Lord's coming'.

Our Lorber friend Helmut from Austria calculated the following last year [2021] in December: 'There are now months in which more happens in 4 YEARS than in the past 700 YEARS. It sounds like a numbers game ... but I used to be very fascinated by what that could mean ... And now I just did some math: $700:4=175$ and I now add the time of the announcement: (April 6) $1849+175$, that results in ???? 2 0 2 4 !!! And it says in the announcement: "plus a little bit of the time stamp". [Note: that could mean the remaining months of the spring!]

Fortunately, we do not know the exact year, the exact month or the exact time. The Bible says: "No one knows when that day and that time will come, not even the heavenly angels and the Son; only the Father knows. Then there will be two working in the fields, one of whom will be taken and the other left behind. Of two women turning the mill together, one will be taken and the other left behind. So be vigilant, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming." (Matthew 24:36, 40-42)

We do know that it will take place "in an indivisible instant, in the twinkling of an eye" (1 Corinthians 15:52)

"Whoever, as a believer, does not pay attention to the signs of the times, is not awake. Be vigilant" is meant for the believers and not for the unbelievers.

In the parable of the ten virgins (Matt. 25), we can see from the word 'virgins' that they are carrying out their tasks and are going to meet the Bridegroom. It is about the spiritual reserves of every human being. These reserves are called "oil for the lamp". Your Word is a lamp to my feet. This oil and lamp have to do with the 'New Word', including the Bible.

Therefore, whoever, as a believer, does not pay attention to the signs of the tide is not awake, says

*Luk 12:54. So He also said to the multitudes: When you see a cloud coming up from the west, then you immediately say, There will be rain; and it will come. And when ye see the south wind blowing, ye say: There will be heat, and it will come to pass. The face of the earth and the sky ye know how to test; how do ye not test this time?

And why do ye not judge of yourselves what is right? The Lord says in this text that we are pretenders if we do not pay attention to the signs of the times. After all, we see the meteorological weather by the wind and the clouds. How much more, then, can we see the signs of His return in the things around us that are mentioned in His Word!

Matthew 24 describes in detail the Second Coming of Jesus. Could chapter 24 be a hidden link to the year 2024? We must be 'watchful' every day.

Prophecy or clairvoyance

There were three "famous" clairvoyants who had the gift of knowing how certain future events could take place. For example, Nostradamus saw and described a certain text passage, that "it" would begin in a spring. We do not know which spring, in which year and where! Yet, he described the imminent fall of the European Union and in advance food prices would get out of hand. Furthermore, he described a European war with many refugees and a bizarre famine and high economic inflation. He also described a 'climate war'. A world population would be exterminated. [by injections?]

The Roman Baba Vanga predicted for 2022, that a 'frozen' deadly virus would be released in Russia in Siberia due to climate change. And virtual life would become a reality mainly behind the screens of notebooks. According to her, in 2023 the earth would change its orbit!

In December 1976 Veronica L. described a dark plan of world government'. A plan of the antichrist. There is a powerful network, operating from a centre of power. They will use a cunning plan to bring our world into a 'unified' power centre with one man at the top. This man unites all nations in a common dictatorship. He tries to seize the homes of the citizens [through the State] to enlarge his own.

But a celestial body will collide with our earth several times. If mankind does not reflect, a great disaster will come upon mankind, which will happen in two stages: 1. A great war will take away one third of mankind. 2. Then a 'round meteorite' will strike the earth and take away two thirds of humanity.

She describes the latter as follows: The 'globe of atonement' she saw to the right of the natural sun, so it looked like two big suns, but the right sun globe had a tail and suddenly starts to rotate around the natural sun and jumps from one side to the other, finally passing over the earth and hitting our planet several times....'

Obedient to the government?

The Lord says: 'After all, my dear Apostle Paul said it clearly, and that under the rule of a tyrant of all tyrants, under the Emperor Nero - that one must obey the temporal authorities in temporal matters, whether they are good or bad. For both have their authority from above.' [GH.02_43.10.07,03]

In the Bible we find names, such as Moses, Daniel, Esther, Rahab and Paul, who under different circumstances could not and should not obey the government. In China, for example, the underground church is growing explosively, because it was constantly pursued by the Chinese regime.

For it is better to be a servant in the world than an eternal slave in the spirit! - But whoever wants to go the way of the spirit, I will know how to protect him under any government, as long as he does not publicly assume any dominion. But if he does so without My express command, then he must endure the punishment of the world!' [GH.02_43.10.07,06]

'Do you now understand what I wanted to say when, like Paul, I recommended obedience to a legitimate worldly authority to all those who confess My teaching? Do you now understand why one should give to Caesar what is his and to God what is God's?' [RB.01_022,11]
