

Friends of the Jesus Revelation through the writing servant and writing prophet Jakob Lorber feel connected to all people of the world as creatures and children of one and the same Father. This Heavenly Father embodied Himself in Jesus Christ about 2,000 years ago and did not manifest Himself as Savior and Teacher until age 30, for three years. The spirit friends of the Divine Revelation recognize in this eternal declaration a new and great Word of God and aim to achieve a joyful mutual exchange.

The Jakob-Lorber Newsletter Team wishes you all a blessed Christmas in remembrance of the Divinity of Jesus, incarnate in the Child of Mary.

We would like to thank our readers at the Jakob-Lorber-Bulletin for their financial support and dedication. Thanks also to Elke from Germany, Martial from the Netherlands, Relana from the Netherlands.

Helmut from Austria writes:

Dear Gerard,

what do you think about asking the readers how they came to the Lorber work, and thus bind the readership more firmly to the JLB by making it more personal? A way of getting to know each other and letting them participate, so to speak?

Answer

Good friend Helmut,

It is a good idea to ask our readership when and how they came to Jakob Lorber. I hope that these spiritual friends will bind themselves even more intensively to the JLB, and if they want, it will become a mutual personal relationship. So the friends of the New Revelation are hereby invited to tell more about it. Gerard

Uwe Sonnenkind from Germany

Dear spiritual brother Gerard....,

The subject of Jesus' date of birth has now been dealt with by you in detail several times, to my knowledge for the last time in the Jakob Lorber International Bulletin of 15.09.2022 (No. 79), where 9 BC was stated.

If I now look at your statements in the Jakob Lorber International Bulletin of 15.08.2023 (No. 90), I get the impression that you now (i.e. 11 months later) assume that Luke (with his reference to Tiberius) is now authoritative after all, i.e. that Jesus was born according to our calendar (thus in the year zero or 1 BC).

Please let me know briefly.

Kind regards,
Uwe

Dear Uwe Sonnenkind,

I recently saw your message in spam. Hence the late reply. You raise a sensitive point, namely the date of Jesus' birth. As described in the point you raised, something in me, also given the current terrible things happening in the world now, says that Jesus will come again personally here and there between 2022 and 2032. He will not come to judge, but to support the poor and the faithful. Therefore, given the signs and cries of humanity, I am inclined to say that He will return at the far end of these 2,000 years later, spoken at the age of 30-33 in Palestine and possibly this was between 30-32 A.D.

Kind regards,
Gerard

Bettina from Germany

Hello Gerard,

Thank you very much for sending me the bulletin. I noticed two things. Michael Neumann is correctly called Michael Nehmann. Also, 'Lebensgeheimnisse' was written by Gottfried Mayerhofer and not by Jakob Lorber. This is just for your information.

Kind regards
Bettina Merk from Constance

Answer

Dear Bettina,

Thank you very much for your attention. It was indeed Nehmann, I've always been bad with names. But that doesn't have to be an excuse for my persona (75 years old).

As far as the writings of Lorber and Mayerhofer are concerned, you are right here. The writing in the spirit is the same for me, because the text is only from the Lord, and they were the instruments, with Lorber usually being the main writer. Thank you for thinking along with me and correcting me.

Best regards,
Gerard

Hello Gerard,

Thank you for the November bulletin. The late prophet Michael Nehmann served the Lorberians in three ways. The Lord was able to give timely revelations through him, He was able to introduce the sixth disciplinary master and the science of correspondence.

First, as in the Lorber work, the transmissions described a knowledge that could not be obtained in any other way. The divine messages further explained Michael's homeland through the legend of the Pied Piper and the Battle of Oldendorf in the Thirty Years' War.

Second, through his dying, Michael Nehmann showed many people what happens when you become a do-gooder who finds the Creator a messmaker and thus, as with many Lorberians, calls the sixth disciplinarian, spreading the New Revelations with pain.

A seeking to improve the world with the help of the New Revelations, Michael suffered a painful soul and, to get rid of the pain, he received divine messages from the Lord as a prophet. Because he took no action after that, the pain became physical and the benefactor died.

Third, Michael was asked to make music because, through music, which can be equated in the transmissions to the science of correspondence, the Lord secretly gave valuable advice on how to use the New Revelations to train the soul in probationary life. Third, Michael was asked to make music because through music, which in the transmissions can be equated with the science of correspondence, the Lord secretly gave valuable

Hello Gerard,

In GGJ 10 -146 Jesus says that the Jews will never again have a land of their own. But in Revelation 7 the 12 tribes are sealed. This also includes the tribe of Judah. How am I to understand this? And what about Romans 11:24-26?

In the text section: 'Words of the Lord to all mankind', I read that under the new revelation to Jakob Lorber, the coming light in the darkness must be understood as His return as Lord on the clouds. But surely the time comes in the last days, when the Lord returns on the clouds, as mentioned in Acts 1 verses 9-11? I look forward to hearing from you.

Here is a text passage from Bertha Dudde no. 8743: 'But before the final destruction takes place (2 Peter 3:10 and Matthew 24:29-31?), those who are Mine will be taken away, and I Myself will come to take them away'.

*They will be allowed to see ME when I come down to them from on high, they will reach out their hands longingly towards ME in rejoicing and ardent love for ME, and I will draw them to ME. I will take them away and raise them and they will experience an event that completely contradicts the laws of nature. But the people themselves are deprived of any understanding of time until their return to the new earth, even if they still have their old carnal body which, however, will already be strongly spiritualized.

*This should also be mentioned to refute the erroneous opinion that the new earth will only be inhabited by completely spiritualized beings because the new earth will again serve as a place of residence of the spiritual for upward development - therefore the old laws will also again have their validity on the new earth.

So does the rapture still seem to be coming? In a book by Jakob Lorber: 'A development picture of Mankind', I read on page 47 that this earth will not perish and will be transformed into a new one, but..... When I read Bertha Dudde, it seems that this present earth will be partially destroyed and that Jesus will "restore" it with the beginning of the millennium, because He speaks here of coming back with "the suddenly taken away people" on a NEW EARTH! I think Jesus will also have changed the climate on the whole earth to subtropical because people will grow old again!

God's blessing and best regards

NB Thank you for all your work in the Kingdom of God!

Answer

Dear Caspar,

The question and questions about the 12,000 and 14,000 thousand concerning Jews is actually a complicated theme that is not easy to answer. On the other hand, it is very easy to guess that. But there is so much to do with the fact that we should not take these things literally, but much more spiritually.

Your questions are very interesting, but also very important, that is why we want to go into them in more depth and will pay more attention to this topic. That's why there will be a separate topic on this in the spring. We will save this for now and come back to it in due time. Thank you for your questions and best regards.

Christian from Germany

Hi Gerard,

I am longing for questions and exchange, sense and understanding. How can I contribute in writing to the respective conversations? Thank you.

Kind regards,

Christian

Answer

Dear Christan,

Exchange is certainly possible, even behind the scenes in the private sphere. And if it serves the reader, it could possibly be included in the bulletin. I could not find you in my e-mail file and have just added you to the Lorber readers. If you don't appreciate it let us know.

This month marks exactly 7 years since there has been a monthly bulletin on, among other things, the works of Jakob Lorber and related writing media. I am always available for questions, but whether I can answer them correctly is not the most important thing, because the questioner may also question something that I, for example, would not know the answer to. That's why I think the emphasis on "exchange" is best.

It takes an incredible amount of time to make the monthly bulletin for Jakob Lorber readers. And I'm a bit handy with the German language. So I hope, with God's help, that I can continue to publish the monthly magazine until it is no longer needed, and I think that time will come soon.

I am very much looking forward to our contacts. You are always welcome and we look forward to working together or exchanging ideas.

With all my heart,
Gerard

Matthias from Germany

This is Matthias from Vellern in North Rhine-Westphalia near Münster in Germany - and I just found your "BULLETIN" as a publication while searching the net. The fact that the BULLETIN exists is new to me, I received DAS WORT for a long time until the magazine was discontinued.

I have known the LORBER WORK for about 40 years and I cannot find among all the NEW OPENBARING WORKS a work that rivals it in depth and foresight. This opinion may be due to my very limited view of the world ... but that may expand over time....For a nice little exchange, I would like to know if you - send the "newsletter" by e-mail to interested parties at certain intervals? If so, I would love it if there is a "German version" from time to time, which is better than a "Deepl" translation.

Anyway, dear Gerard - or Mr. ???? - I have not found the name of your address anywhere.... So I have no idea about your or your professional activity

Apart from being a "child of God," I am otherwise a rather meager "Catholic householder." I am currently more civil engineer than a goldsmith, which is my learned profession, and what else I do professionally can be found on the website ATELIER AM DOMHOF.

My distant contact with LORBER has been strengthened by a Catholic chaplain....

If you are interested, just attach a BOOKLINK, albeit in German....

It might be interesting, that the content deals with the Eucharist of the Lord, the question of reincarnation.... the question of whether an "astral sphere" exists, and the question of the "stages of perfection" - and these both in the life of JESUS and in the life of Mary....

Perhaps this is interesting.....Whatever - THANK YOU. I look forward to occasional small exchanges...THE HOLY FATHER GIVES YOUR GRACE AND BLESSING:

Reply from Matthias

Dear Gerard,

A dear friend of the TRUTH OF LOVE, HUGE THANKS for your open word....Thank you for putting your trust in a "little brother" like me.

Just in short: (abridged by the editor) The perhaps somewhat strange sounding "combination" of LORBER and CATHOLICISM gives me a "complete sense of home", which manifests itself in the fact that with both "spiritual directions" I feel that I have reached DESTINATION, and arrived on the PATH THAT NEVER will stop...

Reply from Gerard

Dear Brother Matthias,

Thank you for your kind words. In 2015 I took over the Dutch translation of the Jakob-Lorber-Bulletin from Giuseppe from Italy. (April-October 2015) Unfortunately, he stopped this bulletin (because it did not cover the costs optimally).

I asked Giuseppe if I could take it over from him and got all his email addresses, which are spread all over the world. Since November 2015 I have been delivering the JLBI (Jak. Lorb. Bull. Internat.) monthly in three languages, recently also in French.

No Deepl. had been used for English until now, says my English translator. I use it only in German. But this is admittedly corrected by a German woman in Nordhorn with a university background. I think Deepl. is a fantastic invention, I can't live without it and it has been surprisingly helpful to me.

I am 75 years old and work in naturopathy together with my wife. We have been doing this together since 1975. We stopped in January and occasionally still have patients.

We have had a few exchanges with each other. Your text had to be quite condensed. Of course, we also use various translation programs and dictionaries. These are indispensable and allow us to put the icing on the cake. We also have professional experts around us who make sure the bulletins are read in a good and readable atmosphere.

For example, the Lorber readers, including you, make it possible for a useful exchange to take place from time to time, i.e. 'a private circle.'

Elke from Nordhorn has a university background and studies the German-language bulletin in great detail. The Frenchman Martial from the Netherlands, who is responsible for the French-language bulletin, is a teacher of French. So they are all professionals.

The very knowledgeable Relana, with her English corrections in the Netherlands, has also been working on the bulletin for 7 years. Without this collective help, none of this would be possible. We could, of course, hire a translation agency, but that is very expensive and not financially feasible. Moreover, it is better if the spiritual background is best anchored in the personal translation. Besides these low costs, there are also high costs that we have borne ourselves so far, such as toner, stamps, registered mail back and forth from the Netherlands to Germany and so on.

Correspondence and exchanges of course also take place privately outside the Bulletin.

I enjoy getting comments when something is wrong and I am completely open to that. For now, in a nutshell, you have the information you want.

Kind regards,
Gerard

Klaus Opitz from Germany

Dear Gerard,

Briefly to your note in the bulletin of 15.11.2023: The mentioned text by Gerd Kujoth (The Second Coming of Jesus and the Great Judgement) can be read in JESUS2030.de.

See homepage.

Kind regards,

Klaus

Answer

Dear Klaus,

Thank you very much for your message. Gerd Kujoth has sent me his manuscript. I haven't read it yet due to a "lack of time", but I will certainly do so soon. I will make a note of this so that the readers can download it from you. The idea of explicitly mentioning his book hadn't occurred to me yet, but I also didn't know whether I could give a reference to his address. Incidentally, I have already read his earlier "versions" of the "Second Coming of Jesus Christ".

Yours sincerely,
Gerard

Johannes from Germany writes

Dear people,

My experience and another fitting word on the same evening of the day. No coincidence. In a suburban train station with students. A Muslim student next to us repeatedly shouts, "Allah is God. Jesus is a prophet." Even a classmate said, "Quiet. I was pleased that the students were listening to me with interest. "Why do so many foreigners come to Germany? Because Germany is a Christian country, here the principle is "Treat others as you want to be treated yourself. That's what the Bible says."

One of them read Bible verses for fun. His voice was good. Then I read aloud 1 Corinthians 13. Love is kind ... "If you are unkind, you must realize that you have no love or little love. Love thinks no evil. Love bears all things. So please don't bully each other."

"On the last page of the Bible, it says what Christians believe in. If you voluntarily believe in that and sign this confession page, then you are a Christian and have eternal life." God became man and that is Christmas and He remains eternal as a visible God. At home, ask about your great-grandfather, your primeval great-grandfather. They must have been Christians (at least in Saxony)."

Farewell wishes with God's blessing. As we said goodbye ... A Muslim student, listening to our conversation next to us, told me again "Allah is God. Jesus is a prophet." Then I said Jesus is God. "Why?" It's in the Bible. Jesus said, "Whoever sees me sees God."

I was happy inside and amazed at myself that I didn't have excitement inside because of the Muslim student. I realized the situation of the youth, they really need stimulators or signposts to Jesus, like Gideon.

I avoided the symbolic interpretation of the crescent moon: "Full moon is full truth. Half moon is a piece of truth, namely charity." As Martin Luther said, "Muslim is a variant of the Old Testament."

A little further on, a student listening to me called out, "God bless you." I cheerfully said, "Oh, thank you." He was one of 6 Bible recipients. At the bus stop, a smiling Christian elderly lady who witnessed the Bible transmission told me, what the student said after receiving the Bible, which I had not heard.

"Oh, a new fashionable book." We laughed and wished God's blessing on /to the students. May silence and diligent labor in the vineyard bless all Gideons this Christmas season and every time.

Warm regards, John

P.S. As M. said at the meeting, it is not always good to point out the confession page in detail. Just giving is sometimes better because you will get a rejection. Up to here, it was for Bible friends. Now to the N.O. friends...

I also know exactly the dark side of many foreigners. It is a challenge. How to tell young people about the dark side. It is better to tell about overcoming by love like Jesus. Show the superiority of Jesus' teaching, not arrogance.

No one becomes Mary without being Martha. Those who speak out will receive encouragement or discouragement. To each his own. Our Father alone knows exactly. Whoever truly becomes Mary will only have a short life on earth. Never be discouraged.

A fitting word from God from Bertha Dudde on the same evening. Not a coincidence, but God's coincidence: "Consider yourselves as My emissaries, all of you who want to be active for Me, and know that I am a good Lord and Father to you, Who justly and fairly rewards every work done for Him, and Who is your friend because you place yourselves at His disposal.... how much fitted-work it takes to first open the souls of your fellow men, to make them ready to receive, and then to distribute them as you wish. You must know that even the smallest spiritual labor is necessary, and that I bless all who are willing to lend a hand in the transformation of still pure worldly thinking. : (Editorial Text shortened for reasons of space!)

The Great World Events

Above the very troubled world events is an omnipotent God who has only given the unfeeling rulers a short time to blunt their rule on nature, animals, and men. We must never forget that it is only given to man to have dominion on the earth according to the will of God, and not outside to do His will, whatever pleases Him. Animals have no dominion, even though a certain hierarchy certainly exists among animals and plants. But to man is bestowed free will and to animals it is not. All situations of war, no matter how bad they are, are allowed by God up to a certain point, when the Lord decides that the human measure of sin has become full and He decides to put a stop to it.

Soon we will face a worldwide final judgment. This was already announced at the time of Jesus in Palestine, and every human being, good or bad, will have to deal with it. We have now entered a very exceptionally serious time, in which the God-Being is rejected, and the Anti-God-Being is hailed. The old world structure of over 6.000 years will cease to exist, and within decades there will be a definite end by the Creator to all the uncleanness and wickedness of the world, and this will be turned around for the remaining people - while retaining their free will - to fruitful exchanges in a paradisiacal atmosphere. Why does this seem so certain? We do not know on what day, at what hour, or in what year the greatest upheaval of all time will come. In the writings of Jacob Lorber, what Jesus said to His disciples 2.000 years ago was predicted, that misery on the earth will be unprecedented.

What we are witnessing now, which was already discussed and predicted at the time, any person who can do a little math can count on his fingers, that the greatest justice EXTERIALLY and INNER will take place before 2032. According to the evangelist Luke, Jesus began His mission at the time of Emperor Tiberius and the provincial governor Pilate at the age of thirty. If we assume that Jesus was born between 9 B.C. and 1 B.C., it sounds logical, that there should be a leeway of ten years. Thus, what was discussed with His disciples must have taken place between 22-32 A.D. and according to Jesus, less than 2.000 years would pass, and the greatest upheaval of all time with a special judgment will take place on the entire habitable earth of about eight billion inhabitants.

Therefore, the earth will soon have a different face. The people who will live after that will also be able to fully develop their inner faithful minds on earth again. Their faces will shine like the 'Sun' again, and from such faces, the earth will rejoice. Many warnings are described in the Holy Bible, but prophesying people have also regularly written about it or passed it on orally. No one will therefore be able to say, "If only I had known!" As the saying goes, 'but forewarned is forearmed. Man is responsible for his good and bad deeds and sooner or later he will have to deal with his own "reckoning. He will reap the good from his good deeds and the bad from his bad deeds. Accounting-wise, he will have to deal with black or red figures. Fortunately, the Lord will 'settle' the bad, because only He knows, how He will be able to turn things for the better through man's free will, provided man will also cooperate in it. The soul will certainly reap what it has sown, and what it has not sown, it will not be able to reap.

The coming judgment, according to Jacob Lorber, first consists no longer of LOVE and BARMHARTINESS, for Jesus said: I have told and showed you several times already, how it will be on this earth. Therefore wait with patience for the certain redemption, which will not stay away, and do not wish for a world judgment before its time! Since when it will come, it will still be too early for you and even more for those who will be judged; since in judgment love and mercy are far away, and each soul will be handed over to its own force, so that she bitterly can experience, how totally useless her futile, temporal help of the world people was. '(GGJ6-174:14))

The judgment will also be extremely severe and just according to the Bible prophets. Not only will the foundations of the earth be shaken, but it will also take place like this in the minds of every human being. We will be tested according to the Lord's will in this approaching rushing end time - yes, even in every single human being. This may be a terrible event, an undeniable natural disaster, that Lorber described in detail through the Lord.

'But once the soul of a man is properly in the darkest night of its self-created worldly delusion, even none of the angels of heaven can give it any other direction without affecting its inner free will, and no one can then say! See, so that was the destiny of this someone! Yes, it was undoubtedly a destiny, but it did not emanate from God, but from man himself.'

video 2023-06-03 15-15-30.mp4

From God, it was only permitted, and this, was a result of man's completely free will. And what I now said about one man, also applies to a whole people: It is and remains itself the creator of its temporal and eternal destiny.)

So it would be a great misunderstanding to assume that God would have predestined from eternity that all this, which I have now shown you by the phenomena and predicted orally, should so happen. Oh no, that is by no means the case! Yet everything will happen this way, because men want it this way. After all, the very largest and most influential part of them is very well and with tremendous stubbornness voluntarily in the total night of hell, and now even after My tremendously powerful appeal does not want to leave this night of death.)

For more than what I Myself am doing now, have done and will do yet, cannot possibly be done without impinging upon the perfect freedom of the human will, and whose eyes are not then opened, and who do not then turn themselves to it, their blindness and unyielding rigidity of heart can then no longer be cured by any means, which anyone can say is a true and good and gentle means. In such a case, then, judgment must come and work as a last resort. But for the judgment to break loose, the measure of the evil by which it is caused must first be full, which will soon be the case with these people -as I have said. So do not think about it too anxiously now, because it is not I, but the people who cannot be converted who want it that way!)

Then Nicodemus said, 'But Lord and Master, then surely things look terrible bad for mankind! If God Himself can never help such people, even against their foolish will and willfulness, who will be able to help them?')

I said, "Yes, friend, you do not understand many earthly things, which you nevertheless see and know, - how will you understand purely spiritual things, which you do not see or feel? Surely I said that about man's inner, spiritual development, God may not influence man with His omnipotence which leads and gives direction, because of His eternal order. For if God were to do that, man would become a dead machine and could never arrive at a completely free, independent life." (GGJ7-52:2-7)

So here it literally says, 'And the time of the end establishes such events that human will cannot stop!'

We even hear and see unusual events and phenomena such as severe earthquakes, and severe floods, that cost and threaten many material possessions and people's lives. As long as man still craves material possessions, money, luxury, etc., and allows himself to be taken captive in the strong grip of Satan, forgetting his Creator and Lord in the process, then man should not wonder that one day he will be stripped of all his earthly goods. That can be a very painful intervention, yet a very great blessing for his soul. The Lord who takes can also give again. If only in the latter, the man raises his head to his Father and begs for help. Jesus says here:

'You have never heard anything about analogies, and therefore even from Scripture you know only the gross, naturally concrete meaning; but the images of the prophets always contain a threefold meaning: first, the natural spiritual, second, the purely spiritual, and third, the purely heavenly from the heart of God.' (GGJ5-272:8)

If a person is besieged by satanic devils, (which are mostly people with psychopathic traits, who have no feelings) then heaven will be open to them, when they turn to God. (Red.): Recently in a seriously beleaguered situation, I asked the Lord to allow me to receive a beautiful spiritual dream, and I received it shortly thereafter. I was in a wonderful atmosphere that seemed heavenly to me, a beautiful mountainous area with beautiful flowing streams, flooded with blissful light. The flowing water seemed like liquid gold. An indescribable atmosphere and I heard myself praising God.

When Christians were persecuted for their faith, yes even to death, in ancient times they laid down their lives singing in the Roman arenas. They knew they would soon be with their Savior. Bad people can kill the body of someone, but never the soul. Stephen testified during his undergoing stoning that he saw an opened heaven (Acts 7.59).

The stoning of Stephen

All enemies of light will be bound in short order, and these will lose their freedoms forever, for endless ages.

The Lord said: 'Men will also be warned by seers and special signs in the heavens, to which, however, only My small number of followers will be disturbed, while worldly men will hold all that to be only rare, natural phenomena and will want to point that out to all who still believe in Me. But afterwards, the greatest revelation will take place through My second coming on this earth; this revelation, however, will also be preceded by a very great and by a sharp just verdict and followed by a general shifting (selection) of the worldly men by fire and its projectiles, after which I Myself will then be able to establish a very different school for true men on this earth, which will then last until the end of the time of this earth. (GGJ6-150:16,17)

In prophecy, striking cornerstones are placed here. What the Lord reveals, is that special signs will soon appear in the sky, these will, however, be dismissed by worldly people as rare natural phenomena. Then there will be the greatest revelation, preceded by a very severe judgment, followed by a shuffling of mankind (by fire and its projectiles).

In a few sentences, we read here the greatest events of the greatest 'end times'. This is not just anything. The powers of heaven will be shaken, according to Luke 21:25-28: 'And there shall be signs in the sun, the moon, the stars, and in the earth, distress of nations with doubtfulness, when the sea and the waves of water shall give great noise; and men's hearts shall succumb to fear and expectation of the things that shall come upon the earth: for the powers of the heavens shall be moved. And then they shall see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with great power and glory. Now when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift your heads, because your redemption is near.'

We will face extraordinary cosmic signs as clues. Especially religiously minded people will understand these signs. In nature, there will be great changes. We already see thousands of dead fish washing up on the beaches of the sea. What is happening now and what is to come can only be understood if we see such events taking place between light and darkness.

The former angel of light also great spirit, is now exiled in the lower part of the earth. He knows that his days are numbered and has a short time left. Therefore, he is trying to poison and destroy the earth so that people die or contract serious diseases. Over 6.000 years ago, he was also the causer of the destruction of the planet Mallona, which was actually meant for present-day humanity. Its debris still wanders around Earth between Jupiter and Mars.

Satan knows how to deceive us according to the Biblical book of Revelation 13. Fortunately, the Lord will intervene in time, yet first allow such activity until the maturity of a certain time. Isaiah is the prophet of the future. And he prophesied in Isa. 24:18-20: "For the floodgates on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth shall tremble. The earth shall be utterly broken, the earth shall be utterly torn asunder, the earth shall be utterly moved. The earth shall totter like a drunkard, and it shall be moved to and fro like a sleeping cabin, and its transgression shall be heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and shall not rise again."

This prophecy bases itself on the future earth waddling like a drunken creature. (pole shift!). We will face an unstable phase in her orbit. But then everything will come apart at the seams with the most terrible consequences on earth. Then most of the people will not survive it. Not even the hidden villages and towns, secretly built deep under the earth for a horde of elite and their soldier slaves, who fear atomic war, which according to Jakob Lorber will not come on a large scale. Such hidden villages and towns, however, will not withstand the severe earthquakes and its elite inhabitants will be razed to the ground and buried alive.

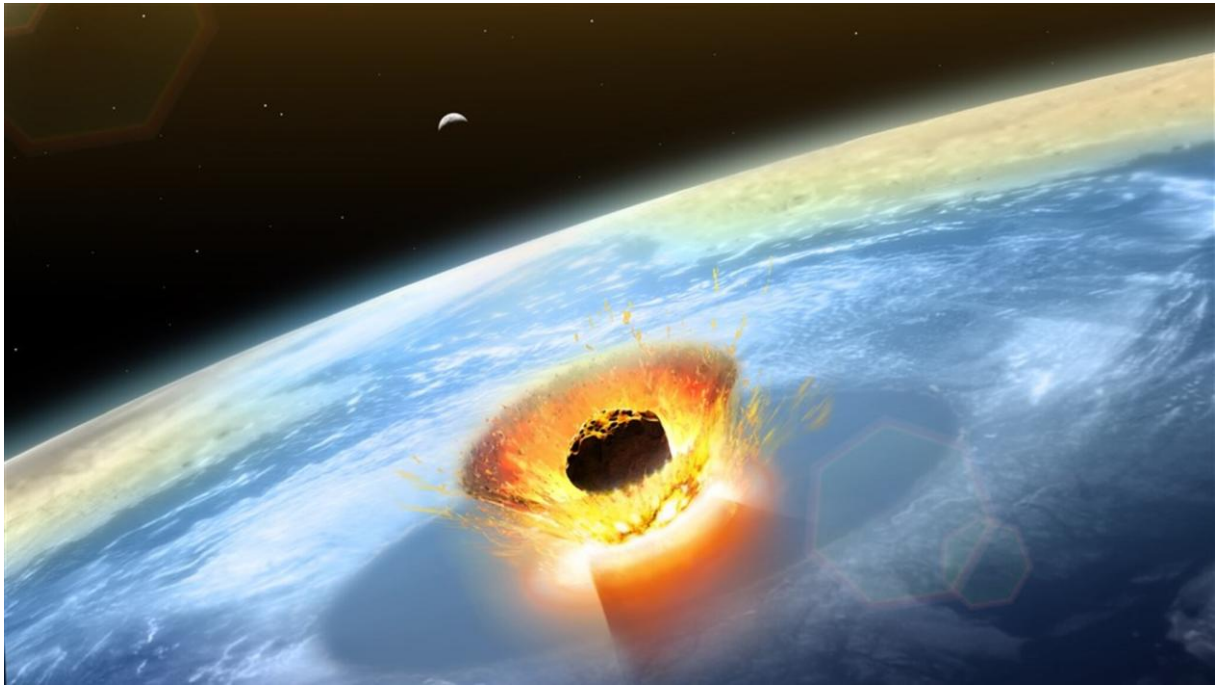

According to the Bible book of Revelation, all the mountains and islands will be removed from their places. The great and rich of the earth will then hide under the earth. But that will not help them, for all the voids, hollows and valleys will be filled up. They will be buried alive. Rev. 6:12-16.

And Rev.8:10. describes a star that will be hurled upon the earth. With Lorber, would this mean 'the enemy from the sky'? All telephony and internet connection will be no more. The remaining people on earth will be the strongest in mind and body. They will be allowed to contribute to a new earth. The prophet Joel also describes the end of the great judgment. It will undoubtedly be dark on the earth for a while, which can also be compared to the dark condition of the people, who do not possess spiritual light.

Jesus said to the disciples in Palestine long ago, 'And if the number of pure and good men shall diminish greatly as in the days of Noah, then shall the earth be ravaged once more by a general judgment, in which neither men nor beasts nor plants shall be spared. Then men will have nothing left of their fire and death-spitting weapons, nothing of their fortresses and their iron roads, on which they will run hurtle forward with the speed of a shot arrow; for from the sky, an enemy will come and destroy all who have always done evil. That will truly be a time of true purification, as in those days in the temple.'

'What I did recently in Jerusalem in the temple with the money changers and pigeon traders, I will then do on a large scale throughout the earth. I will destroy all trading houses and money-changing places by the enemy, whom I will send to the earth from the distant skies like a thunderbolt with much clamor and crackling. Truly, against it all the armies of the earth will fight in vain; but My few friends the great, invincible enemy will do no harm, he will spare them for a whole new breeding ground, from which new and better people will arise!' (GGJ5-108:2-3)

What He did 2.000 years ago in the temple He will now do to the whole earth, which stands completely disheveled in its form before its great Creator. The Lord will remove all money changers, including the stock exchanges, money markets, and consumer merchants.

The star that will strike the earth will darken the earth with many particles of dust. Probably the Lord will intervene if man wants to reach for the nuclear missiles. God created man for this earth to come to a child of God, to create paradise worlds together with their Heavenly Father. Satan is all too eager to hinder that, but he forgets that man is the very crown of God's creation.

We recall the "Song of the Lime Tree," which pithily describes our world situation. Kajin still remains a spectator of this terrible world event. It is said that in peacetime there will be a totally different temperature in Western Europe. Because of the Earth's rotation, its central polar axis will probably shift 1500 kilometers to the Equator, i.e. much further south. Small communities will arise and live together (which is already emerging now, but still without an experience of the divine spirit!), a time of prosperity. The darkness will have to serve the light.

Something is preparing in the cosmos that every individual being will have to sense and influence. A light will come on in believing people that the changes in the cosmos are not only due to the polluted environment, but much more due to the polluted way of thinking of high-ranking people, who have the helm in their hands, but forget that God is the actual captain. The end of human godless prosperity is in sight and it is coming at us with great speed. It will be like it was in the days before Noah's flood, yes even worse.

Soon (even sooner than we can imagine) an end will come from this materialistic disposition of many unbelievers (pagans!). If these do not turn back to their Creator, they will end up in the afterlife in those spheres, where they will gradually be corrected, and in the most stubborn cases, they will have to surrender to being bound again in the solid matter, which they loved so much, and as prisoners have to serve unprecedented times, for which matter was necessary.

Satan can partially embody himself in the most cunning way in worldly-minded people, whom he whispers power to, and this will have great influence on the world. He will manipulate all the greatness of the earth and promise the world great prosperity under the guise of a reset. Mankind is being led to believe that things will soon get much better with individual prosperity. Communism will flare up all over the earth.

In the Household of God, the Lord describes such situations at the time of Adam and Lamech (before the flood - mabul), but now the world is not only caught up in this, but this goes up on simultaneously with a spiritual flood. Noah's brother has a name similar to the Hebrew name of the deluge: MAHAL

Rev. 18:7-11 writes: 'Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, [namely] death, and mourning, and famine, and she shall be burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God that judged her. And the kings of the earth, who have whored with her, and have had wealth, shall bewail her, and shall mourn over her, when they shall see the smoke of her fires; Standing afar off for fear of her torment, saying: Woe, woe, the great city of Babylon, the strong city, for thy judgment comes in an hour. And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their wares anymore.'

Most people will be persecuted because of their faith. 'When therefore thou shalt see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place; (he that readeth [it], let him perceive it!) (Matt. 24:15)

The Bible clearly says that we should not be deceived, for He will not just come, only then when apostasy has reached its peak will He extend a helping hand to us. Even in situations where the revenue model (the wars) and 'vaccinations' (revenue model) make us believe in false health. The opposite appears to be true. Coercive measures are igniting the biggest protests around the world. Those in power are trying to reduce humanity on a massive scale.

Clairvoyants speak of civilian-like war situations in Europe and the Middle East. Humanity is under receivership and this censorship is growing stronger. The superpowers are banding together. In secret, young men In China and Russia (hundreds of thousands!) are being fanatically trained and countless weapons are being manufactured. Pay close attention to what the Lord says about this: 'See, all My creatures hang on My power, but My children hang on My love!'

In the New Revelations, the Lord says what the world is facing us now. We are in the midst of it. We have only to pay attention to the signs of the times. Those who cannot see this are deeply entangled in their material world and they are still far from their Creator. Matthew 24 seems to be specifically a prophecy for the year 2024?

There is no CO2 problem. This is what certain people are falsely telling humanity. The earth will become more infertile because of wrong environmental policies, and man's crop failures are their own fault. Mathael made a future prediction about this time in the presence of Jesus. He said to the vice emperor Cyrenius: But soon after that time things will start to look very bad for people's lives. The earth will become more barren, very expensive times, war and famine will arise, and the light of faith in eternal truth will fade in many places, and the fire of love will die out and cool down, and then the final judgment of fire will come upon the earth!" (GGJ 3-33:4) This was whispered in him by the Lord.

Jesus said to an innkeeper, 'I say to you, 'As long as true pure love and the humility corresponding to it do not order and guide the peoples, so long also it will generally be darkness is on the earth. That there will always be some who will stand in the light is sure and certain, but of these, there will always be but few. For as long as there shall be worldly great, and unduly proud and not honorable rulers in the world, so long also shall the seed of pride and of co-ruler ship run rampant in all classes of mankind, and darkness, selfishness, envy, usury, persecution, and treachery, as being the true elements of hell, shall not depart from the face of the earth until the time of the great judgment when I shall again cleanse the earth by fire. After that time there will be no more king over any people of the earth, but only the light of God. Physically you will not experience that time, but clearly and abundantly spiritually in My kingdom.'

Then the innkeeper said: 'Lord, when, counted in years, will that happy time come? I said, 'That only the Father knows, and after Him only the one to whom the Father will want to reveal it. To Me, My Father has not revealed it until now, except that it will come to pass. But you can all assume as completely true that almost every two thousand years a great change takes place on earth. And so also, counting from today, it will come to pass!' (GGJ6-76:8-10)

But there will also be a happy time afterward Beforehand, however, the earth will have to be cleansed down to the smallest part-this will be an immense operation. The Lord says, 'I will wipe out everything from the face of the earth.' The parable of the weeds of the field lends itself as a wonderful example of this. (Matt. 13:37-43)

During this time we can expect great signs on Earth, on the sea, and in the sky according to the N.O. 'Then great signs will also take place on earth, on the sea and in the sky, and I will raise servants who will prophesy from My word the coming judgment in many ways. But the pride of men will not listen to it, and if he listens to it at all, he will not believe their words anyway, but will laugh at them as if they were fools. But this very thing will indicate with the greatest certainty that the great judgment, which will consume all evildoers by fire, is irrevocably at hand. (GGJ6-174:2)

'Wait therefore patiently for the sure salvation, which will surely come, and do not wish too soon for a premature world judgment! For when that shall come, it will be still too soon for yourselves, and still too soon for those who will be judged; for in the judgment love and compassion are far from being found, and every soul will then be left to its own strength to experience with bitterness how totally useless was the vain, temporary help of worldly men.’ (GGJ6-174:14)

Servants will be raised who will prophesy from the Word. Even the Infant Jesus (the embodied Deity) said, a mighty fire will come from above over the BONES of the wicked and they will be destroyed. Notice here Jesus says BONES. The wicked of the earth are seen as animal monsters in the form of skeletons. Those who kill themselves and also drag others into that hellish darkness.

‘But once many have reached the full measure of their evil, because of the still few good and chosen ones, the time of their unpunished evil acts will be shortened by Me, and then their own judgment and their death will devour them before the eyes of the few righteous, as was partially the case at the time of Noah and of Abraham and Lot and also at the time of Joshua, and will be repeatedly the case from now on.’ [GGJ.09_030.05]

‘The beginning will soon be experienced by the Jews, as well as later other empires with their princes and peoples; however, in not quite 2.000 years there will come yet another very great and general judgment, for the salvation of the good and the destruction of the worldly great and the utterly loveless people. What that judgment will look like and what it will entail, I have already revealed several times to all My disciples who are here with Me, and after Me, they will proclaim it to the peoples of the Earth. All the best to those who will take it to heart and arrange his life accordingly, lest he be seized by the judgment!’ (GJE9-30:6-7)

The earth will NOT be destroyed, but only its basic structures will be given a renewed form. ‘The human race on earth is not of itself as it is, but it comes from the earth and has its nature and characteristics in everything! Consequently, with the complete extermination of all human beings now living on earth, the once ingrained disorder would not be remedied in the least! For then we would have to let other human beings arise from the matter of the earth, which would after a short time resemble the present ones, just as the fruit of a tree from a past year resembles the fruit which the same tree will bear the next year or even later. Consequently, one should also make the whole earth disappear and put in its place another, which, however, would be an even greater violation of My creation.’ (RB.01_083,03)

‘One may remove from a tree, when it bears bad fruit, the bark and some of the branches and twigs, after which it will then bear really good fruit again, but the pith and roots must not be destroyed. For if one did so, the whole tree would soon wither away and never again bring forth good nor bad fruit. The earth is precisely the nucleus of life for the whole tree of life and is like a main root for all of creation! Were we to destroy it, we would thereby abandon not only the Earth but the entire visible creation to its final dissolution, which would be several decil million earth years too soon.' (Hell and Heaven-183:4)

Although the old earth will suffer seemingly irreparable damage, the Lord will restore it to its original state, and probably even more beautiful, as He did at the time of Adam." (The Household of God, part 1, ch. 9)

The earth will tilt by a falling star, mountains will collapse and fill the valleys. John on Patmos saw in a vision 2,000 years ago that which is occurring now. "And the forms of the locusts were like horses prepared for war; and on their heads were like crowns, like gold, and their faces like the faces of men. And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like [teeth] of men. (Bible book of Revelations: 9:7.9)

The Bible book of Revelation seems to refer to the first 3 ½ years of Satan's release (especially ch. 13) on all mankind. First, however, when World War III is over, the greatest tribulation will yet come upon mankind.

Jesus said: "Then great wars will occur here and there among the nations, and one people will march against another; also there will be great scarcities and all kinds of epidemic diseases will break out, such as have never occurred to mankind until then. Great earthquakes will also precede it, to make the people thereby urge one another to penance and charity. Blessed those who will be led by this! But very many will not care, and will attribute everything to the blind forces of nature, and the prophets will be called impostors, and many will be thrown into dungeons for My name's sake, and will be forbidden under threat of severe punishment to speak in My name and announce a coming judgment. Whoever will not do what the great whore of Babylon wants will have a very hard time.' (GGJ6-174:5,6)

For then shall be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, neither more shall be. And if those days were not shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake, those days will be shortened. (Matt. 24:21-22)

In the North Sea, there is a lot of nuclear waste on the sea floor. Deep-sea divers have determined this. Alarming! It is a matter of time and history knows their greatest self-made natural disaster. We are not yet talking about the Russian decommissioned nuclear reactors that are always buried a few meters underground. Or about the laboratories where very dangerous bioweapons are piled up and can silently destroy human life in no time, if a nuclear bomb is then thrown. They are more than ticking time bombs.

The Lord will then also soon come 'physically' to this earth and be with us and clothed here and there with an elastic etheric body. The NO describes the reward to the 'epicureans'. No one will soon be able to say: this is my property, for everything will then belong to everyone as in a community. A cadastre will no longer be necessary.

The Lord will still, the more quickly the judgment comes upon us, stir up more and more "commandments" to focus us on Him as our Creator and abandon all worldly pleasures.

Robert Blum describes very clearly that Jesus will come to earth in His very holy person, but only then, when the earth is cleansed. A certain Rudolf in the beyond told Paul in the beyond what he had seen in the spiritual kingdom:

‘I saw a great upheaval in the sky the other day, and a fiery horseman came to me and said, ‘Your house will be left devastated and no stone will remain on the others! The earth will be cleansed by fire and blood! A loud lamentation will sound from the mouths of the great; fire and pestilence will snatch away the poor by the millions, and the end of the world will come! Those were the frightening words of the fiery horseman. When he was uttered, we were overcome by great fear, so that we began to shout very fearfully’.

‘Thereupon the fiery horseman said to us, ‘But God the Lord will first call all, even the most rejected. The Lord Himself will come into the spirit realm and will make Himself known to all who are held captive by their night. Those who will turn to Him, He will also preserve. But His servants Peter, Paul, and John will go before Him and will proclaim to the captives the light that comes from the name of Almighty God. Those who will take this name into their hearts will themselves be given a new name, and the Lord will raise again their half-destroyed fortresses and their ruined fortresses.’

‘So will the Lord also come to earth, though first only by the word from the hearts and mouths of wise men whom He has raised and of whom He will raise several more. But then, when the earth will be cleansed, He will also come in His most holy person to all those who love Him and are pure and merciful in their hearts! Thereupon the fiery horseman left us and rode away like lightning, after which we saw him no more. (Heaven and Hell, Vol. 2.207:2-4)

Also elsewhere we read, ‘Because men thus purified will stand in My light and will forever observe the commandments of love from within and truly, the earthly land property will also be so distributed among men, that everyone will have so much that with proper diligence he will never have to suffer want. The pastors of the churches and also the kings will wholly follow My will and light and see to it that there will never be any want among a nation. And I Myself will visit the people now here and then there and strengthen and edify them, there where the people will have a very strong desire for Me and the most love for Me.’ (GGJ8-186:8)

Jesus said to Nicodemus, among others, ‘And so it will come to pass in those times. Everything that will be high will be lowered. The tops of mountains will have to become flat and fertile land. Then people will not ask, "Who is king over this land?" but "Who is the first and greatest benefactor of this happy people? Let us go to him, that we too may come to know his wisdom according to God's order! When this happy time will come, wolves, bears, lambs, and hares will drink peacefully with one another from a spring'. (GGJ7-184:9,10)

We will therefore have a paradisiacal condition on earth, as described in Rev. 21 ‘Our sins He will remember no more.’ For I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sins no more’. (Jer.31:34)

People will also be in contact with the spiritual world. In those days, men will have frequent contact with the pure spirits from My heavens, who will be their teachers and will instruct them in all the mysteries of eternal life in God, as was shown to you in the third phenomenon, in that men went in and out through the twelve gates. However, the twelve gates now no longer meant that the new city was built out of the twelve tribes of Israel, but out of the twelve main tenets of My teaching, which are contained in the ten commandments of Moses and in My two new commandments of love; for these are the gates through which men shall henceforth enter into the new city of God, which is full of light and life. (GGJ7-54: 7,8)

There will be 100.000 times as many people on earth, as there were at the time of Jesus. That's extremely many. But it is possible. The ‘world order’ is currently demanding a reset of humanity, and there will be a reset, but a spiritual RESET. The sheep will be separated from the goats.

Zechariah, the second to last book in the Old Testament, makes a future statement that applies to our time: "And it shall come to pass in all the land, saith the LORD, the two parts therein shall be cut off, [and] give up the ghost; but the third part shall remain therein*. And I will bring that third part into the fire, and I will purify it as one purifies silver, and I will test it as one tests gold; it shall call upon my name, and I will hear it; I will say, It is my people; and it shall say, The LORD is my God. (Zech.13:8,9)

- This statement is reminiscent of John's statement in Revelation that two-thirds of the world will perish, and the ‘other’, that is, 1/3 will be led (purified) by the Lord!

Today's politicians seem to be literally possessed by a spirit of war and money. Power, haughtiness, and arrogance prevail and in this way, they govern the people. There is no listening to the citizens, who are suffering.

But better times will come. Not times of excess food, luxury, and technology, but there will be enough in SIMPLICITY. Small stores will spring up again and we will be able to buy only the most necessary or become self-sufficient. The economy no longer needs to grow, because that is bad for humanity, but should remain constant, so that there is constant balance.

Precisely in times of contradiction, each one will encounter for himself that characteristic, how his true humanity is. The seer Irlmaier said there would be another global earthquake before World War III.
