

Jakob Lorber Bulletin

International

Date: 15-03-2024, number 97

Friends of the Jesus Revelation through the writing servant and writing prophet Jakob Lorber feel connected to all people of the world as creatures and children of one and the same Father. This Heavenly Father embodied Himself in Jesus Christ about 2,000 years ago and did not manifest Himself as Savior and Teacher until age 30, for three years. The spirit friends of the Divine Revelation recognize in this eternal declaration a new and great Word of God and aim to achieve a joyful mutual exchange.

Jakob Lorber did not formulate a sentence himself, but he only wrote down exactly what the true Jesus dictated to him word for word through the heart or the Inner Word. Basically, it is not about the 'Jakob Lorber works', but about the 'Jesus work' through Jakob Lorber.

Dear Gerard,

Greetings from the USA. I read your latest bulletin yesterday and took note of your offer on page 6 to send the complete script you referred to in the article about Israel orchestrating the attack on October 7. Yes please send it to me. Also, If there is a mailing list for receiving the English translated bulletin I would appreciate it if you could add me to it.

I have been aware for a couple of years about the reality of the Zionist state and was pleased to see you have stepped up and are presenting the truth to your readers.

I have been meaning to ask you for sometime if I may post your bulletins on the foundation's website. Your bulletin is always informative and thought provoking.

Have you seen our website? I put it together a little over two years ago. There is much I still would like to do to improve it as I have an ever growing stack of ideas.

May the Lord continue to bless your work,

Answer

Dear Spiritmate,

Thank you for your surprising message. We have added you to our e-mail list as requested. You will also find attached the complete story on the situation between Israel and Palestine, a topic which is now very much in need of attention and to which several of our readers have responded.

We thank you for your interest and also for noticing the great differences between Israel and the Palestinians. It is not a question of politics, but of a major world event and this history goes much and much further than one can ever imagine. It is very easy to express an opinion about it without having seriously studied it. The information we have is very shocking. G

Stop polarizing. (This response to the last Lorber bulletin.)

Roughly speaking, there are two groups of people on earth; people who believe in Jesus and in the deity of His being and want to follow Him and the other group are the followers of His opponent. In other words, the lie contra the truth. The lie divides, and the truth connects. The adversary is extremely manifest in these times. As very knowledgeable knowers of the truth and of the new revelations including through Jakob Lorber, we must be careful not to go along with the lies as well. And to go along with the polarization.

If you start talking about Israel, you are on thin ice. A Biblical people that was once promised to be God's people. Once promised remains promised. Especially with God.

That there have been and of course still are very wrong Jews is all too familiar to Lorber readers. But it remains to be seen who or what the real Jews are today. During the Diaspora they were assimilated and mixed. Now, right now, there are some 10 million reasons why Israel should be supported. Namely about 10 million inhabitants consisting of Jews, (secular, Orthodox or liberal), Christians, atheists, Druze, Muslims, Arabs, Bedouins, and all sorts of other people living together in relative peace democratically in that beautifully developed, modern country. So there are not only Jews living there.

And that does not make the inhabitants of Israel a people to be exterminated from the river to the sea! A common cry during worldwide, massive pro Hamas demonstrations. Consider how threatening it sounds to the inhabitants of Israel? "From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free." Especially after the terrible murderous bloodthirsty pogrom of 7/10/23. Whether this pogrom was staged by Israel itself remains very much to be seen. But in any case, this terrible event shows the true face of Hamas.

You can also say that after the Holocaust and then after the establishment of Israel, the country was populated with real and unreal Jews. By the way; I bolded "founding" because I want to emphasize that Israel was not created after an aggressive war of conquest but after an agreement with the United Nations. And, by the way, after that moment of founding Israel has been continuously forced into defense mode. Defense against aggressive Muslim-related hatred. (In this regard, see the history of the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem: Mohammad Amin al-Hoesseini. Hitler's greatest and most loyal ally who grew his hatred of Jews like a cancer throughout the Muslim world and has millions of followers to this day. This hatred is indoctrinated to children from kindergarten. They serve up lie upon lie. Palestinian Christians are not even ashamed to claim Jesus as Palestinian. A people who have never actually owned their own country).

Don't forget that in Israel many different cultures live side by side in relative peace. Even Arabs, Bedouins, Druze and Christians can and do live there. A Western-style democracy. Come to think of it in the rest of the Muslim world. There the idea exists, dictated by the Koran, that there are two types of countries; countries where Muslim believers live and the other is war zones.

In the alternative media these days it is bon ton to be anti Israel. That hurts me because that is where the truth is and should be paramount. And above all they should not polarize. It baffles me why the focus is on that tiny country in an ocean of Muslim hatred. Instead of Israel, look at real mega genocide in Azerbaijan, Nigeria, China, etc, etc. The worst human rights violations and genocide that you don't, or barely, hear the supposedly engaged news media talk about. Genocide directed at Jews AND Christians!

So let us pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Psalm 122:6). But also for the innocent inhabitants of Gaza and do not join in that polarization and Jew-hatred.

I recommend that everyone consult other sources Therefore, read the articles of "Christians for Israel" (<https://www.christenenvoorisrael.nl/>) and of the messianic Jewish "Israel Today" (<https://israeltoday.nl/>). These contain many Bible-related opinions that you can think freely, broadly and widely about. But they do show a very different picture of this issue than what we as ordinary bourgeois and/or committed thinkers tend to feed on.

In closing, I want to quote a piece from Sarah Young's "I'm Always With You" Page 86, March 9:

My ways are mysterious and unpredictable, but they are good. If you only look at the events of this world, where evil seems to reign supreme, it is easy to become afraid and lose heart. You cannot understand why I allow so much cruelty and suffering. The problem lies in the fact that I am unlimited, and you are not. Many things are simply beyond your comprehension. But do not despair. When your powers of comprehension are exhausted, trust in Me will carry you on. Affirm your trust in Me through silent and loud prayers.

Stay in touch with Me! Don't get caught up in a demanding attitude, an all-consuming desire to know why. That is the wrong question to ask Me. The right questions are: "How do You want me to look at this situation?" and "What do You want me to do right now?" You can't change the past, so start with the present moment. Start looking for the way I am pointing. Trust Me one day and one moment at a time. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; do not fear, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, I will help you.

Connected in Jesus and with all respect, Adriaan

Johannes (Germany) in our Jesus contacts writes:

"We are now living in a time (in 2024) for which the Earth truly has no shortage of horrors. The spiral of disaster seems to be spiraling downwards ever faster. The climate catastrophe, which is resulting in increasingly extreme natural events such as devastating fires, droughts, and floods is by no means all that is causing millions to flee and be displaced. In addition, there are currently pandemics (various coronamutants) that are ruining the global economy and, on top of all the horrors, there are cruel wars that do not stop at civil society in their inhuman aggression - quite the opposite."

'The gap between rich and poor is widening more and more, the excessive waste on the one hand and the misery on the other are becoming ever more precarious. Overpopulation is also a major problem: ¹. We already have almost eight billion people, many of whom are driven to hunger and hopelessness by wars, mismanagement, and corruption. Added to this are criminal activities of the worst kind. Drug-related crime, sexualized violence, robbery, and murder are worldwide the order of the day. In a word, this earth has become hell as far as these aspects are concerned. And the worst thing is: there seems to be no improvement in sight for these negative developments.' (Saskia Keune)

The fairytale that we are a functioning democratic constitutional state is still being spread and sometimes believed in Germany (2024),. But how is Germany currently described from a national and international perspective?

Germany finds itself in a kind of horror combination of the terrible German era from 1933 to 1945 and the two masterpieces published over 70 years ago by the brilliant visionaries of the future Aldous Huxley "Brave New World" and George Orwell "1984".

Jesus dictated to Jakob Lorber that the earth can support 1000 x 1000 as many inhabitants as the number who were still alive at the time of Jesus in Palestine! [GJ.08_190,08]

Germany has now unmasked itself in the coronavirus pandemic since 2020, showing its true face, its ugly grimace. The coronavirus pandemic has ensured that at least the average person in Germany is now aware, or could be aware, of what Germany actually is - at least for the most part or in part:

A ruthless, loveless, dehumanized, anti-Christian, degenerate, disinhibited, unscrupulous, predatory capitalist, zombified, hypocritical, propagandistic, censored, populist, bureaucratic, regulation-addicted, expropriation-addicted, value-less, corrupt country that runs amok, anti-democratic state of injustice and surveillance based on authoritarian and institutional arbitrariness and abuse of power, in which there are no longer any independent courts, no division into legislative and executive branches and certainly no independent press, and demagogues are no longer only at home in the radical right, radical or even left-wing spectrum, but now especially in the middle of society. ².

An insane, disgusting, ugly, unscrupulous, power-hungry, money-hungry, libidinous, inhumane, cruelly shameful, unscrupulous, misanthropic, barbaric horror state, monster state, butcher state, torture state, terrorist state, politician state, state of authorities, judiciary-judge-state, police state, institutional state, money state, capital state, rogue state, which is one of the best disguised federal banana republics in the world and this most shameful scum appears as ravening beasts and furies in human form.

As long as people in Germany are reasonably healthy and doing reasonably well economically, these circumstances are still bearable for most people. However, since 2020 in particular, the issues of "health" and "finances" have deteriorated massively for millions and this is now increasingly turning into a powder keg.

Many people in Germany are appalled by foreign autocrats and fascist dictatorships such as China's Xi Jinping, North Korea's Kim Jong-un, Russia's Vladimir Putin, and Chechnya's Ramzan Akhmatovich Kadyrov, Turkey's Recep Tayyip Erdoğan and the US Republican radical right-wing Donald Trump cult or, for example, the extremist, fundamentalist, radical Islamic terrorist organization Hamas and the radical Islamist groups Taliban, Al-Qaeda, "Islamic State" (IS) and Houthi.³

It is remarkable that many people still do not seem to be aware that there are millions of "such terrible inhuman beasts and furies" in German authorities/institutions (e.g. false courts with willful and malicious judges and lawyers and experts), but that they only appear dressed in a different "cloak", commonly known as "wolves in sheep's clothing".

But in Germany, too, there is a growing "awakening" and trust in the authorities/institutions is dwindling rapidly. More and more sections of the population are turning away in disgust from the "degenerated, sick" part of the German political/legal/authoritarian/institutional state.

Let us be aware, that in most countries around the world, conditions are even worse than in Germany and that we are already living in apocalyptic times and probably only have a very small window of opportunity of a few years left.

And let us also be aware that there are also millions of people in Germany who are resolutely and courageously committed to helping others and working towards peaceful coexistence. And it is these people - who bring warmth to our country - who give us courage.

In my view, the end of this end-time phase with the transition to the 1000-year kingdom of peace, based on the New Revelation (Lorber, Mayerhofer, Engel), is as follows:

If we start from Jesus' statements "as near 2000 years", which Jesus made at the age of approx. 30/31 years and repeated remarkably often and take this literally and assume a birth of Jesus in the period from approx. 6 to 8 BC (as many NO friends do), this end time should end around 2024/2025. ⁴.

2.

If we start from Jesus' statements "as near 2000 years", which Jesus made at the age of approx. 30/31 years and repeated remarkably often and take this literally and assume a birth of Jesus in the period of zero (i.e. according to our calendar), this end time should end in the area of 2030 at the latest.

3.

If one again assumes from Jesus' statements that everything depends on the conditions/indicators and that concrete predictions with dates would be a judgment, then everything can also be postponed. [See also SaE 1.071.1.]

We should always be aware that Jesus will come like a thief in the night (that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night).

[RB 2.210.7] As it says in Scripture: 'But in those days many false prophets will arise and perform signs, saying, "See, here is Christ, or there He is!" - but do not believe it! For the coming of the Son of Man will be like a flash of lightning that goes from rising to falling. The coming of the Lord will also be like the coming of a thief in the night.

⁴Given the mindset of this decade, it does indeed appear that Jesus will not return after the great cleansing until the end of this decade (2030) or the beginning of the next decade!

But this time is now like the dawn of that day which will come either for the salvation of the righteous and for all those who are of a gentle and good heart and love their brothers and sisters in My name. But this day will also come like a thief upon all those who do not respect Me and have a hard and proud heart and consider themselves better and more respected than their brothers in whatever and because of whatever.

A multitude of so-called "schedule attempts" for these end times could now be listed here (see the various attempts by the NO friends and "prophets", "seers", etc.). The "B E S T (!)" for the end of this end-time phase are here the statements of Jesus, which describe the end of this end-time phase in direct connection with the transition to the 1000-year kingdom of peace (see in extended form the four types of purification fires together with the transition to the 1000-year kingdom of peace - GGJ 8.185-187), i.e. the following three passages, the textual context is decisive here!

[GGJ 8.186.06] When such doings and goings-on will once have reached their highest point through the power of fire, then the Earth's air will also be filled too powerfully with the combustible ether species at such points, which will then soon ignite here and there and turn such cities and regions into rubble and ashes together with many of their inhabitants

Note: According to Wilfried Schlätz, this is the "enemy from the air", combustion of industrial conurbations caused by ourselves through the release of flammable etheric species (nature spirits), which no natural scientist yet knows! In other words, localized fires caused by industrial man himself!

Remark: It is well known that the "enemy from the skies" is interpreted differently by NR friends, and this will then probably also be a great and effective purification. But what the fire caused in this way will not achieve, other great Earth storms of all kinds and species will achieve where it will understandably be necessary; for nothing will be burned and destroyed without need.

But this will also free the Earth's air from its evil vapors and natural spirits, which will then have a beneficial influence on all other creatures on Earth, and which will also serve the natural health of people in such a way that all the many and evil bodily diseases will cease and people will be able to reach a healthy, strong and old age. [GGJ 8.186.07]

Because the already purified people will stand in My light and observe the commandments of love alive and true forever. The earthly property will also be distributed among people in such a way, that everyone will have so much that he will never have to suffer any need if he works diligently, and the heads of the communities as well as the kings, as being completely under My will and light, will see to it that there will never be a lack in a country among a people. And I will soon visit the people here and there and strengthen and uplift them wherever people will have the greatest longing for and the greatest love for Me. John. [GGJ 8.186.08]

John the Evangelist .

Rev 22,10: "And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near." The book of Revelation by John, forms the conclusion of the Bible. But in this last chapter, there is a striking text saying that this book, in which the prophecies are described, does not need to be sealed. When did the evangelist John describe all this? Probably in the year 95 A.D. And when did John write his gospel? According to Jakob Lorber, it was in the year when Jerusalem was destroyed by the Romans in 70 AD. When the disciples met Jesus, they were young men in their early sixties. Mary was 15 years younger. John was probably the youngest of the later apostles, and his age at the time of Jesus can be estimated at 45, as well as that of Mary and James, the author of the "Youth of Jesus". When the evangelist John was already in his eighties, he finished the Gospel of John in an orderly sequence. (70 AD) At this time, he was probably around 83 years old. It was not until about 25 years later, when he was exiled to Patmos and received the visions there, that he described them in the "Revelation". This could therefore have been written around 90-95 AD. The Lord said, "John was able to put his gospel in its proper order, next to Mary, and in it he proclaimed to posterity only what was necessary for their happiness. John lived a long time and only later put his visions on parchment under the title "The revelation of John".

The book "The Revelation of John" is the last book of the New Testament. It states that the prophecies contained in this book do not have to be sealed. This means that this book of the Bible is not yet complete. When it says that Jesus is coming soon, he, the Lord, may mean that he will send his messengers to the people with much grace and comforting words. We are not alone! In fact, over the centuries, man has had to deal with writing prophets such as Hildegard von Bingen, Jakob Böhme, Emanuel Swedenborg, Jakob Lorber, Gottfried Mayerhofer, and many others.

In the first chapter of Revelation, John witnesses an angel dictating to him that every person who reads and acts on this revelation will be blessed. For the time is near. (Rev.1:3)

Jesus returned within a century of his ascension, which also says that this will happen soon. (Rev.1:1) Likewise, in the 22nd chapter, the last book of the Bible, Jesus testifies that he will return soon. But Jesus has NEVER left mankind as orphans because he has supported us in all times, but many have ignored his messages. How can they then accuse this Jesus of leaving people to their fate!?

Jakob Lorber, Swedenborg, and other messengers of Jesus explain through the divine spirit the biblical revelations of John, which Lorber received under the name "The Great Gospel of John". They explain it down to the smallest detail and this can be seen as a GREAT REVELATION. They do not contradict the biblical book of Revelation but clarify it as the Lord commanded.

The book of Revelation describes the spiritual realm of Heaven and Earth and not the material state. This book of the Bible explains the analogy of matter and the period of man's spiritual resurrection. When the spiritual words of this particular book of the Bible reach people's hearts and they experience these words and align their lives accordingly, they will be blessed. Does the "revelation" refer to the return of Jesus or the spiritual resurrection of man?

It is interesting to note that after Jakob Lorber, Gottfried Mayerhofer was also chosen as the author of The Lord (1875). We should not take the images in the Revelation of John literally. Then we would get nowhere and countless contradictions would arise. When Jesus returns to Earth and dwells here and there among people, there must first be a purification process. If we read the Bible, and all the prophets and then the gospels, as well as the letters of Paul and other apostles and disciples, and finally the Apocalypse of John, described in "The Spiritual Sun", we need not wonder why there are so many differences between the subjects described. In this case, of course, we have to say: "Each uses a different task, different imagery. and elaborates quite different elements. Even the four Gospels do not agree on the historical facts, says the Lord in this book.

The Apocalypse of John is shrouded in imagery. Each writes one and the same truth, each preaches Me, and each commands love, humility, and patience. The facts that each of them (the gospels) tells are always the same. Those who see them in the right spiritual light, will find the most wonderful agreement.

If you take all the verses written by all the prophets and evangelists together and look at them in the right light, they will appear to you as the fruit of the same tree. The Lord says emphatically that in the end times or the "time near at hand" the final judgment will not come. This is not a time of doom but a time of resurrection. In the third volume: "Heavenly Gifts" we read about the time of resurrection on March 21, 1864. Many will be awakened from the sleep of life. They are those who know the word but have not fully understood it.

The near time is not a time of death, but a time of life. The Gospel of John belongs to him, says Jesus, because: "As long as he (John) traveled around with me as an apostle, he only wrote down fragments and noted down what he wanted to remember most. John was supposedly in exile on the island of Patmos, but this was not a prison for John at all, for Jesus says: "But this was no exile for John at all, for in the fortress of the Greek Cado was a righteous and mighty Roman, who also lived for a time in Jericho."

How did our like-minded people come to read or study the Jakob Lorber writings?

This question was asked in one of the last bulletins. We have received only a few answers, but nevertheless there is enough space in this issue. The messages received have been sorted by entry.

Caspar from the Netherlands writes:

How did I come across Jakob Lorber? In 2017, I was working as a finance man for an evangelization project in a hotel in Jakarta. My project manager had forgotten our lunch date. That made me sad. You get the feeling: 'My brother in the Lord has let me down'. I thought: 'What should I do now'? I was sad and decided to get down on my knees. First, there was praise and then I asked Jesus: "Please show me your love". I then opened a website on a topic that interested me, namely about "all people before Adam". Suddenly I was on Bertha Dudde's website: New Revelations. There I got answers to many questions. I always pray for the truth!!!

When I was back in the Netherlands, I found out that there must be a Bertha Dudde circle. I wrote and got an invitation to come to Belgium. And yes, I was told about Jakob Lorber there. In the meantime, I have read a lot about it!!! It is a great help to understand more about the "end times" too. Praise be to King Jesus!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! PS: I would be very happy about a Jakob Lorber circle of friends!!!!!! ⁵.

Helmut N. from Austria writes:

WHOM GOD WANTS TO SHOW THE RIGHT FAVOR

He will send him into the wide world, to whom He will show His wonders....

These words of the poet, set to music in a cheerful song, certainly also applied to me personally. When I was young, I have, among other things spit in the Niagara Falls, looked out for Nessie in Scotland, been in police custody in Egypt, spent the night in caravanserais in Afghanistan, photographed rhinoceroses from the back of a riding elephant in eastern India, tracked down indigenous people in the jungles of western Malaysia, strolled through Angkor in Cambodia, admired the long black hair of Vietnamese women in Saigon, practiced judo in Tokyo, stood on the summit of the 4100 m high Mount Kinabalu in Boro, hitchhiked through Sumatra, been married to my Filipino penpal for exactly 50 years and - last but not least - followed the footsteps of Jesus in Israel with our friend Gerard.

And the fact that I came across this greatest treasure of my life - the New Revelation - was also due to my youthful wanderlust.

In the 1960s, my Chinese pen pal Chee Wai in Singapore asked me to look up an old man in Vienna with whom he was exchanging stamps. I did do that, and met an old man in a wheelchair. (Today I am much older than the "old" man back then).

⁵ Maybe you can create one yourself?

He had been an Arabic interpreter in North Africa during the war and was an atheist. Despite the loving care of his wife, he entertained suicidal thoughts. Then his Creator led him to the Lorber work and turned the unfortunate man into a lover of Jesus who from then on was convinced that he did not need to take his unloved wheelchair with him into the spiritual world.

At the time, I was working as a carpenter in Switzerland for some time, to quickly earn money for a planned motorcycle trip to India and Singapore. One day, I received a parcel from Vienna; the contents were a so-called Lorber tear-off calendar.

Excerpts from the Lorber work were printed on the back of the individual daily notes. What I read there was like a lightning strike for me as a young person! Never in my life would I have dared to dream that there could be such overwhelming statements about God, the World, and the meaning of life! Here a divine authority spoke with words that came so familiar from a distant long-awaited homeland!

God had suddenly become a fact, these words alone convinced me completely, according to Jesus' words "My own know My voice." My youthful questions such as "What do we actually live for, do animals have a soul?" were answered in a heart-satisfying way, not like by ignorant adults "We live to create something for ourselves in the world, animals have no soul, they are there so that we have meat to eat..." No, such answers could never convince me; I had finally found the proof of God in the Word of the Lord!

When my guardian angel brought me back to my mother in one piece after seven months and 13,000 km in the saddle of my 1953 BMW 250, a quiet time began for the previously restless one. Quiet in the sense that the accumulated debts from the trip around the world had to be worked off and a Lorber book was devoured every month.

Now there remains the unspoken question of what the spiritual rebirth looks like after almost 6 decades of serious study of the New Revelation. It should be said that the Lord alone has the right to make a valid statement on this.

I think absolutely nothing of the self-satisfied statements of many American Christians who describe themselves as saved and born again because they believe in Jesus Christ as the Creator of Heaven and Earth, attend church on Sundays, and pay the pastor's contribution.

The Lord Himself has given us the standard by which we are to be measured as to how far we have progressed in our rebirth: Love God above all else and love your neighbor as yourself. We should measure ourselves by this and not exalt ourselves. All that remains for us is to humbly ask our God and Creator

FATHER, PLEASE MAKE ME WORTHY OF YOUR GRACE

The Hebrew letters

The letters are the bodies. Every word forms things from heaven. One word can even form many ideas or feelings in the mind. In the Bible, one word contains thousands of truths. So one truth can contain many spiritual truths and one lie can contain many lies. The few letters of the alphabet form the basis for many thousands of words. While thousands of words can express thousands of ideas.

A word is dead in itself, only when it is spoken does it come back to life, especially when it comes from the heart. The written word itself also has great power. It has a high vibration. What is written must live, but the letters themselves are dead and await inspiration (interpretation). Every word begins with the smallest Hebrew letter, with a JUTTA, just like the JOD. This cannot be a coincidence, because the word 'Juden' contains the root letters for 'Jod'. Strictly speaking, they mean "the effect of their actions", because yod means "hand".

1	א	10	י	100	ק
2	ב	20	כ	200	ר
3	ג	30	ל	300	ש
4	ד	40	מ	400	ת
5	ה	50	נ	500	תק
6	ו	60	ס	600	תר
7	ז	70	ע	700	תש
8	ח	80	פ	800	תת
9	ט	90	צ	900	תתק

In our spelling, we use the comma to express what yod stands for in Hebrew. Every Hebrew word is imbued with this tiny little sign. However, it is peppered with busy activity. This means that Hebrew can be interpreted as a living language, just like the Bible or the Holy Scriptures, which are permeated by the Hebrew language, which is considered a living word. The language must be lived. Otherwise, it is almost impossible for us to establish connections such as communication. Language itself is the reflection of every state of the human soul.

But people can talk and chatter as much as they like. Language must have a special value. Word knowledge, vocabulary, and language are also a form of communication. Words must flow. Real life consists only of actions. The Jews have the characteristic of acting first. In the end, they think about whether what they have done was right.

The letters are like bodies. Every word in the scriptures represents things of Heaven. One word can even represent many ideas or feelings in the mind. In the Bible, one word contains a thousand truths. So one truth can contain many spiritual truths and one lie can contain many lies. The few letters of the alphabet are the basis for many thousands of words. The many thousands of words can express countless, thousands of ideas.

Bruno Gröning

Bruno Gröning

He once said: "There are many things that cannot be explained, but nothing that cannot happen."

Bruno Gröning was born in 1906 in Dantzig into a simple working-class family. From an early age, he was aware of his task here on Earth. His whole life was characterized by love and kindness. Wherever he appeared, disputes calmed down, animals became quiet, and spontaneous healings occurred. He never boasted about his special powers, led a "normal" life as far as possible, got married, became a father, and had all kinds of jobs. He never accepted a penny for the help he gave.

It was not until 1949, when a very spectacular healing had taken place, that he became known to the public. Then people flocked from near and far. In post-war Germany, the physical and spiritual need was naturally very great. It happened that 30,000 people stood around him and hundreds of people experienced spontaneous healings simply because they were in his presence. Eyewitnesses reported that "the lame began to walk, the blind began to see and the deaf began to hear". His motto was: "I am nothing - God is everything; he is the greatest physician".

Bruno once said: "I call you all, dear friends, to a great conversion! The path you have taken so far was the wrong one! I don't need to emphasize this, because you know that the path you have taken was the wrong one. Trust and believe! It helps, it heals the divine power within you.

Bruno foresaw in his time that people are too fixated on their path to materialism, which is the path to Satan, and not to the spiritual, to God. If people are always ready to open up to the divine within themselves, then the soul heals and with it the body. At that moment, the divine power flowed through him to an indescribable extent and he was able to pass it on to people in a weakened form as a transformer. Bruno said: "God is the transmitter of this healing power and sends it out always and everywhere.

Man is the receiver. However, Bruno was very modest. He said: "I am nothing, but our Lord and God is everything! His golden rule: three things lead to the eternal: good thoughts, good words, and good works.

Wars

JESUS told us: "There will be all sorts of things like cabbages and turnips among themselves: war with feathers, war with empty pockets, war with thieves and robbers, of whom there are already twenty-five thousand in B., who live only by swearing, stealing, cheating, breaking and robbing. That is a blessing of communism! Then really war with the sword, war with misery, war with fornication, war with the devil, war with oneself, war with morality, war with humanity, war with religion, war with worldly wisdom, and even war with death!

When this true plural war is fought out, then the measure will be taken and everything will be measured critically and mathematically, what each person is allowed to have, eat, and know, what he is allowed to speak, and what he is allowed to write. This is the square measure that always leaves out three-quarters of the circle. That will be the learned proposition, but it will soon find a very common antithesis!

Finally, one will draw a circle and consider oneself and oneself alone as the most perfect. - That will be the circle! But then I will secretly take the liberty and put an end to such a foolish circle -How I know very well! That will be the end of an extremely foolish song of this generation.

But don't you see how the northern polar bear grinds its teeth on the ice? The seal meat no longer tastes good to him. He has long coveted the cattle and sheep of the south. Soon he will have sharpened his molars into fangs. So woe to the fat cattle and the fat sheep of the south! I tell you, their fat will congeal on the icy shores of Siberia!

Behold, this is one who has no fear of quills and abhors this weapon. But much gold and silver, many horsemen, and many guns and cannons are his business! Woe betide him if he leaves his camp! I tell you, he will win with power and tyrannical magnanimity! And soon, very soon, if the cattle and sheep of the south are not soon turned into lions, that is, into lions of wisdom and lions of true inner strength...." [Gifts of Heaven 02_46.12.20.03ff].

You are like Abraham

The Lord said: 'Joseph (of Mary), do you know who Melchizedek, the king of Salem, was? - You do not know! But I know and tell you: The king of Salem was the Lord himself, but no one except Abraham was allowed to suspect it! So Abraham bowed to the ground before him and willingly gave him a tenth of everything. Joseph, I am the same Melchizedek and you are like Abraham! Why don't you give Me a tithe of these good fish?

Who made the fish like the sea? Was it Mary or Me, a King of Salem from eternity? You see, I am here in Myself from eternity, and you don't even want to put down a whole portion of fish for Me? That looks rare! But that is why it will come to pass that one day people will serve My womb much larger portions than Me. And I will have to pay attention to what is served to the Mother, and the order of Melchizedek will be far away!" [Youth of Jesus: 01_169 from 11-19]

The obedience of Abraham, through which God tested his faith when he showed him the ram hanging in the thorns, also signifies the obedience of the blessed virgin in advance. She believed the word of God's messenger and wanted it to be done to her according to the word of the same messenger. That is why the Son of God clothed himself with her flesh. (Note: Mary of Joseph!)

Abram settled by the terebinth trees of Mamre, about two miles north of Hebron (Gen. 13:18).

HE was foretold by the ram that hung among the thorns. God also said that the lineage of this Abraham would be as numerous as the stars in the sky. For in this generation, he foresaw what would be included in the full number of the heavenly church. And because this [Abraham] believed God faithfully in everything, he was also called the father of those who will be heirs of the kingdom of heaven. (Source: The Book of Divine Works - Liber Divinorum Operum - H.v.Bingen).

After these things had happened, God put Abraham to the test. He said to him: "Abraham!", to which he replied: "Here I am!". And He continued: "Please take your son, your only son, whom you love so much, Isaac, and go on a journey to the land of Morja, and sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will appoint for you." And Isaac began to say to Abraham his father, "My father!" Then he said, "Here I am, my son!" Then Isaac continued: "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?"

Then Abraham lifted his eyes and saw a ram with its horns caught in a bush. So Abraham went and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. Then Abraham returned to his servants, and they set out and traveled together to Beersheba, and Abraham stayed in Beersheba. (Genesis 22:1-19) ⁶.

The memories of a previous life?

'If you have a debt to pay to someone, settle quickly with your opponent while you are still on the way to court with him. Otherwise, he will hand you over to the judge, who will hand you over to the bailiff and you will go to prison. I assure you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny. Matth. 5:26,27.

According to Swedenborg, it happens that a deceased human spirit, who is present with people unnoticed, can bring certain things from his memory to people so that the person thinks that he has these memories in his own memory.

Some people think they remember situations and events from their previous life. Although an angel or spirit is not allowed to communicate with a person through their thoughts, they can influence a person's mind. This is because angels and spirits have a memory just like humans.

If a spirit were to communicate with a human being through his thoughts, then the human being would know no better than that the things he is thinking about are his own thoughts. Nevertheless, they are the thoughts of the other spirit. This is also the case with memories of things or situations that a person has never seen or experienced before. Some people believe that after a few thousand years they will return to their previous life with all their actions.⁷

People come to this conclusion because they sometimes have a memory of things and situations that they have never seen or experienced before. This happens when they receive thoughts from their spirit and this spirit lets them flow into human mental images.⁹

⁷ Bè'eer Sjava means 'well [of] oath' באַר שְׂבַע

According to Matthew 5:26, people have to deal with their own karma. Here is the example of money. He cannot free himself from it until all tasks have been solved. Only through the grace of God can he be forgiven for many things.

He still has a lot to make up for under God's guidance. A pupil who cannot apply or practise the knowledge and experience he has learned in his next school year will not make any progress.

Jakob Lorber hardly speaks of the removal of guilt, but rather of purification and perfection. We should release personal guilt towards others and ask for forgiveness, insofar as this is possible. The Lord has already settled the Luciferian angelic fall on Golgotha on the cross.⁹

⁹ In a German-Russian family in the former GDR, a grandmother cared for by someone I've known for many years sent a Christmas card that read, "If we did something bad to you last year, we now ask your forgiveness."
